

Grammar

- 1 and, but
- 2 (b)
- 3 Even though it wasn't his favourite subject, Ahmed chose to attend Maths Club.
- 4 Pronouns: They, us
Prepositions: at, on, with, in, on
- 5 (d)

Punctuation

- 6 (a) The first sentence is the key sentence.
(b) Early water clocks
- 7 'Can you hear me?' he asked.
'Yes,' she whispered.
'Don't move!' he cried out suddenly.
- 8 (a) Being ninety-two years old, grandmother needed more sleep than us.
(b) The children had, without meaning to, tired her out.
- 9 My brother-in-law has a habit – a really bad one – of picking wax out of his ears even in public.
- 10 Just after midday, Pia arrived with crisps, carrot, celery and a dip for the party.

Vocabulary

- 11 anti against phono hear tri three struct build
- 12 (a) footwear
(b) currencies
- 13 sensitive: delicate, tender, responsive charming: lovable, amiable, delightful sad: despondent, glum, dejected bold: brave, courageous, direct

14 (d)

- 15 (a) i
(b) ii
(c) i

Spelling

16

Word	Plural
life	lives
cuff	cuffs
potato	potatoes
trios	trios
father-in-law	fathers-in-law

- 17 (a) snoring
(b) writer
(c) dropping
(d) forgotten

- 18 (a) friend
(b) receipt
(c) belief
(d) reign

- 19 (a) weigh
(b) where
(c) here

- 20 (a) science
(b) knowledge
(c) muscle
(d) Wedednesday