

- 1 Nouns: flower, spade, garden
Adjectives: pretty, tidy, colourful
- 2 Common: river, table
Proper: Italy, Peter
Abstract: truth, hope
Collective: family, gang
- 3 Verbs: fell, set
Adverb: suddenly
- 4 Football is England's favourite game.
In the Premier League.
Are you going to see the match?
Show your ticket.
- Question
Command
Statement
Not a sentence
- 5 1 proper noun – Andy
3 common nouns – children, park, slide
2 adjectives – three, local
2 verbs – takes, run
1 adverb – immediately
- 6 Prince William is the grandson of the Queen. He married Kate Middleton in Westminster Abbey in 2011. Many people lined the streets to cheer the couple. (8 capitals)
- 7 Girls were once expected to look for careers as typists, shop assistants, nurses or servants. (2 commas)
- 8
- |   |                  |
|---|------------------|
| : | colon            |
| ! | Exclamation mark |
- 9 If it's not too much trouble, I'd like you to take the dog for its walk. (2 apostrophes)
- 10 Rome is the capital of Italy and its largest city. It is a centre of fashion, tourism, business and culture. Ten million people visit the city each year. (4 capitals, 2 commas, 3 full stops)
- 11 again
- 12 three

- 14
- a. harden
  - b. celebrate
  - c. sadness
  - d. argument
  - e. critical
  - f. English

15 Homophones – so, sew
Onomatopoeic words – crack, plod
Words that rhyme – stare, chair

- 16
1. finger
  2. hand
  3. nail
  4. thumb
  5. wrinkle
  6. wrist

17

Singular	Plural
child	children
wish	wishes
mouse	mice
plate	plates

18 Combs were invented more than 5,000 years ago. The oldest one in the world was dug up in Iran and is carved from wood. Other ancient combs were made of bone. Cavemen made them out of reeds and used them to remove nits from their hair.

- 19
- cried beautiful jellies staying

20

Verb	Past tense
grow	grew
count	counted
lose	lost
sing	sang
wish	wished
live	lived