Key Stage 3

Citizenship Education for Key Stage 3

Terry Fiehn and Julia Fiehn

Teach the 2014 Citizenship curriculum with confidence using Citizenship Education for KS3, a single-book course that matches the revised Programme of Study and was awarded the Association for Citizenship Teaching Quality Mark in 2015.

This book develops pupils’ understanding of Citizenship, including the functions and uses of money and how the political system of the UK has developed. The structure of the book ensures that there is progression of knowledge and skills across the key stage, and the activities are designed to be flexible for use on their own or as part of your own scheme of work.

• Gives you confidence to teach new topics covered in the revised Programme of Study
• Promotes knowledge and understanding of the content through active learning
• Provides activities that are accessible to all abilities and are easy to prepare and use

PSHE Education for Key Stage 3

Lesley de Meza and Stephen De Silva

Teach PSHE Education with confidence and engage your students with up-to-date, relevant and current issues. This cost-effective one-book course has been written by experts to cover the revised Programme of Study from the PSHE Association.

This resource for Key Stage 3 will help you develop your pupils’ skills and understanding of personal, social, health and economic education through an active learning approach. It contains up-to-date information on issues such as the safe use of personal data on the internet, the impact of sex in the media and social media (including ‘sexting’), and the risks of gang culture.

• Develops skills and understanding progressively across the key stage through a series of clearly presented, relevant topics, with up-to-date information and stimulus material
• Provides a wide variety of activities that are easy to prepare and use in classrooms
• Identifies topic suitability for each age range, together with clear guidance to assess content and skills progression

The Hodder Education book ‘AQA GCSE (9–1) Citizenship Studies’ is a comprehensive and engaging resource that addresses the breadth and depth of Citizenship required for the AQA GCSE course. The resource is organised using themes that link to the specification. Key questions highlight the focus for the teacher and pupils, which should help with curriculum planning.

The book promotes critical engagement and thinking about a wide range of issues raised in Citizenship, through the use of highlighted discussion points. Opportunities for exploring and taking Citizenship action are helpfully included within each key theme across the course. Students are supported in taking their own action through a separate section of the book. This book will be valued by teachers and pupils as they address the requirements of the AQA GCSE Citizenship Studies qualification.

Teaching & Learning Resources

Ready-made resources, multimedia content, lesson planning tools, self-marking tests and progress reporting:

- Group resources, plan, and deliver outstanding lessons using the Lesson Builder tool.
- Share lessons and resources with students and colleagues.
- Monitor student progress through interactive tests.

Exam Question Practice

Exam-style questions, sample answers and examiner comments:

- Work through each element of the exam as a class.
- Assign timed exam-style questions as classroom activities or homework.
- Get exam guidance with subject-specific advice and tips.

Student eTextbooks

Downloadable versions of the printed textbook that are assigned to individual students.

- Use on any device, with on-the-go access via the Dynamic Reader App.
- Add, edit and synchronise notes across 2 devices.
- Choose from 1, 2 or 3-year access options – all cheaper than the printed textbook.

Whiteboard eTextbooks

Online interactive versions of the printed textbook for front-of-class teaching.

- Display interactive pages to your class, add notes and highlight areas.
- Launch the accompanying Teaching & Learning Resources for each page when you subscribe to both.
