

Young Citizen's Passport Seventeenth Edition weblinks

Travel and Transport

European Health Insurance Card - for more information or to apply online visit www.ehic.org.uk

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office provide information about travel requirements and conditions. Visit the 'Travel advice by Country' section of their website for more information, www.gov.uk/fco

Gov.uk - more information is available from the 'Driving, transport and travel' section of the Gov.uk website www.gov.uk.

If your vehicle is being kept off the road and not taxed, you will need to make a Statutory Off Road Notification (SORN). You can also do this online at the Gov.uk website.

ABTA (The Association of British Travel Agents) provides information and advice about problems with package holidays, www.abta.com

DVLA (Driver & Vehicle Licensing Agency) deal with enquiries about driving licences, tax discs or the registration details of a particular vehicle, visit www.dft.gov.uk/dvla and www.gov.uk for more information.

Gov.uk, the official government website, provides information on the law relating to learning to drive, buying and licensing a vehicle, and road safety, www.gov.uk.

HM Revenue & Customs provide some information for travellers, www.hmrc.gov.uk. Put goods to the UK into the HMRC search engine to bring up a menu from which details of banned or restricted goods and allowances etc. can be extracted.

National Express Group plc provides information on coach, rail and local bus travel, and cheap fares, www.nationalexpress.com

Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents provide information on all aspects of safety, and the prevention of accidents at work, in the home, on the roads, in schools etc, www.rosipa.com

UK Border Agency provides information on travelling to and from Britain, with guidance on entry and customs controls, www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk

16-25 Railcard is available to 16–25 year olds (& people who are 26 and over and in full-time education), costing £28 pa (£65 for three years), providing a one-third discount on many UK rail fares. Available online, from stations and rail-appointed travel agents, requiring a passport-sized photograph and proof of age, www.16-25railcard.co.uk