

Young Citizen's Passport Seventeenth Edition weblinks

Education

The Advisory Centre for Education offers information on many aspects of education, including exclusion, bullying, special educational needs and school admission, www.ace-ed.org.uk

Care to Learn help with childcare costs while you are learning, see <http://www.gov.uk> for details.

Coram Children's Legal Centre provides free independent advice and information on education law, www.childrenslegalcentre.com

Department for Education provide information and deal with enquiries relating to issues at school via its website, www.education.gov.uk

Education Otherwise provides information and advice for people choosing to educate their children out of school, www.education-otherwise.org

Gov.uk the official website for government services and information, can provide information on many aspects of education and learning; there is also a section on student finance, www.gov.uk. Information on student finance in Wales is available from www.studentfinancewales.co.uk

Independent Schools Council for information on education in the independent sector, www.isc.co.uk