How we can help

We know that every classroom need is different, which is why we currently offer a range of opportunities from face-to-face events and webinars to bespoke in-school training.

Face-to-face: Regional events

From Teacher Workshops to Student Conferences, our regional events cover the whole spectrum of teaching and learning, with ideas and resources that you and your students can use immediately.

Online: Teacher and student webinars

These interactive sessions are a cost-effective way of training, offering classroom-ready resources and 6 months access to the webinar recording, meaning you can view them on-demand as many times as you need.

IN-SCHOOL Bespoke training

Is there a CPD workshop that you wish to attend but find it a struggle to leave the classroom? Or is there a particular area you are looking for support with? Why not 'host' an event or a more tailored workshop at your school on a day that suits you and your colleagues.

None of the events in this brochure are official AQA events and therefore the views and messages shared are not representative of AQA. For more information about the specification and official events, please visit www.aqa.org.uk. If printed or digital copies of AQA material are required for any events, you will receive confirmation of what you need to bring prior to the event

AQA A-level Sociology: Preparing for the exams

Course leader: Laura Pountney

Leeds: Friday, 8 March 2019

London: Friday, 15 March 2019

Course fee: £249 +VAT

Booking Ref: SOA080319 / SOA150319

This session will help you to prepare your students for the three linear A-level papers with a focus on the skills necessary for each paper. The day will explore how students can approach A-level style questions as well as understanding how to use the item and understanding the assessment framework to focus closely on success criteria. Sessions throughout the day will cover all the compulsory topics, as well as the optional topics with a focus on Families and Households and Beliefs in Society.

- Explore strategies for teaching and learning which reflect the linear style course, building students' confidence and skills
- Gain a clearer understanding of the breadth and depth necessary in long essays, deeper analysis and evaluation
- Receive teaching resources and activities to take away for students to use for exam revision and preparation

These sessions offer students interactive, intensive revision of both the content and the deeper skills required in the run up to the three A-level exams. The aim of each webinar is to increase confidence in understanding what examiners expect and will focus on the more demanding A-level questions.

There will be a focus on how to use the item, answering short questions, application of knowledge to the question and making synoptic links in the long essays. Students will be given lots of useful revision resources to use after the sessions, as well as being able to ask questions through their teacher.

- Gain a stronger understanding of the demands of all three papers on the linear course, including all the question types with their specific demands
- Increase confidence in understanding and unpacking A-level style questions
- Improve higher level skills and hear advice on how to deliver stronger, more accurate and focussed essays
