El nuevo acoso escolar

Ayer se publicaron los resultados de un estudio sobre el acoso entre los adolescentes españoles, y parece que el 11% de los jóvenes de entre 12-18 años son acosados por sus compañeros de instituto. Cuando analizamos estos datos, podemos observar que el acoso físico no ha aumentado en los últimos años, sino que ahora hay más acoso psicológico. Una de las causas del acoso psicológico es que los jóvenes utilizan las nuevas tecnologías para acosar a sus compañeros, sobre todo, usan las redes sociales. Ahora los acosadores escriben comentarios en las redes sociales para reírse o burlarse de sus víctimas y también animan a otros a que se burlen de esa persona.

Esta es, por ejemplo, la historia de Pedro (no es su nombre real, sino un nombre inventado para proteger su identidad), de 14 años de edad. Un compañero empezó a acosarlo en su red social. “Dejaba comentarios insultándome o amenazándome”, nos cuenta Pedro y continúa, “cuando decidi no admitirlo más como amigo, creó una cuenta con mi nombre y la utilizó para insultarme y también para insultar a otros chicos en mi nombre”. Además, en el pasado, los acosadores eran gente que conocían en persona a ese chico o a esa chica, ahora pueden estar incluso en institutos distintos y no conocerse personalmente. La psicóloga, Leticia Campos, nos explica: “Este tipo de acoso causa más dolor y trauma para las víctimas, porque en muchos casos es de una humillación pública. A veces, son acosados por personas que no conocen, pero que han visto sus fotos en las redes sociales”.

Otra de las dificultades para las víctimas es que a veces los adultos, tanto los padres como los profesores, piensan que la responsabilidad no es solo del acosador, sino que la víctima causa el acoso. Para estos adultos, la causa del acoso es que las víctimas hacen o dicen cosas que los diferencian del resto de sus compañeros. Por ejemplo, un chico que siempre está leyendo cómics o que lleva ropa muy diferente. En el caso de Pedro, él dice: “Los chicos que me acosaban siempre me llamaban gordo y al principio, mi madre me decía que si perdía peso, dejarían de meterse conmigo. Pero cuando hablamos con mi profesora, ella dijo que ellos son los que tienen que cambiar y no yo”. Leticia Campos comenta: “No podemos culpar a los alumnos. Ni el aspecto físico, ni la forma de ser ni de actuar son razones suficientes para acosar a una persona.”

Sin embargo, otra característica más positiva es que el acoso cibernético es más fácil de probar, porque se puede saber desde qué ordenador se escribió un mensaje, así como la hora y la fecha en la que se publicó. Así, los culpables pueden ser castigados y también reeducados para que comprendan que los insultos y las humillaciones tienen consecuencias muy negativas en la vida de otra persona.

Para concluir, ¿cuál es la solución a este problema? Todos los expertos están de acuerdo: la solución es educación, educación y educación. Los jóvenes tienen que aprender la importancia del respeto a los demás. Cada año más institutos y colegios tienen cursos en los que un psicólogo o profesor explica a los alumnos qué es el acoso escolar y qué hacer cuando lo sufren o si conocen a alguna víctima. También es importante que los profesores y padres aprendan a actuar en los casos de acoso y, por último, hay que invitar a los jóvenes que sufren acoso a decírselo a sus padres o profesores, para que no estén solos y para solucionar el problema.

(t) Item 1

You listen to Maria talking about her summer working in a yoga centre abroad.

You now have one minute to study the questions for Item 1.

(f) El año pasado estuve trabajando tres meses en una escuela de yoga en Glasgow. Yo practico yoga desde hace siete años y quiero ser profesora de yoga en el futuro. Por eso, Carlos, mi profesor, me ayudó a encontrar trabajo en un centro de yoga en Escocia durante el verano.

Mi trabajo en la escuela era de “chica para todo”, es decir, a veces trabajaba en la recepción, contestaba al teléfono, recogía los materiales al final de la clase... ¡De todo, vamos! Lo mejor era que cuando no tenía que trabajar, podía ir gratis a las clases de yoga. Me encantaba porque así podía practicar entre cinco y siete días a la semana.

Durante mi estancia allí, viví en casa de una de las profesoras de la escuela, con su familia. Al principio, no entendía muy bien lo que me decían y creo que ellos también tenían problemas para entenderme a mí. A veces, no era fácil vivir con ellos, porque hay muchas diferencias entre la cultura española y la escocesa. Pero, al final, nos llevamos muy bien y me sentí parte de la familia.

Ahora tengo que terminar mis estudios y seguir practicando y mejorando hasta poder ser yo la profesora, pero en el futuro, cuando tenga mi propia escuela en España, ayudaré a los jóvenes extranjeros que quieran venir a aprender y a trabajar conmigo, para que ellos tengan una experiencia tan positiva como la mía.

(2 minutes)
You listen to Mario telling his friend about his stay working on an organic farm (granja ecológica) abroad.

You now have one minute to study the questions for Item 2.

(f) ¡Hola, Mario! Hace mucho tiempo que no te veo. ¿Dónde has estado?

(m) ¡Hola, Carmen! Es verdad que hace mucho tiempo que no nos vemos. He pasado el verano trabajando en una granja ecológica en el norte de Escocia y volví a España el sábado pasado.

(f) ¿De verdad? ¡Qué interesante! ¿Y cómo era la vida allí?

(m) En la granja siempre había mucho trabajo. De lunes a sábado, me levantaba a las seis de la mañana, pero tenía libres los domingos, así que podía descansar.

(f) ¿A las seis de la mañana! ¿Y por qué te tenías que levantar tan temprano?

(m) Porque había que ocuparse de los animales, por ejemplo, de las vacas. Aunque no me importaba, porque me encanta trabajar con animales y estar en contacto con la naturaleza.

(f) ¿Y cuánta gente trabajaba en la granja?

(m) Es una pequeña granja familiar y allí vive toda la familia: un matrimonio con sus tres hijos. Además, hay un chico que vive en el pueblo y que también ayuda en la granja cuando hay más trabajo.

(f) ¿Y entendías todo lo que te decían?

(m) Bueno, al principio no entendía casi nada. Me parecía que todos hablaban muy rápido y utilizaban muchas palabras que yo no conocía. Pero todos eran bastante pacientes y me explicaban todo lo que no entendía.

(f) Me has dicho que los domingos no tenías que trabajar, ¿tenías amigos allí? ¿Y qué hacías para pasar el tiempo?

(m) Me hizo amigo del hijo mayor del granjero, que tenía un año más que yo. Él me presentó a sus amigos y los fines de semana íbamos de excursión al campo o a nadar. También íbamos al cine que hay en el pueblo de al lado.

(f) ¡Qué bien! ¿Y no echabas de menos a tu familia y a tus amigos españoles?

(m) Sí, claro, sobre todo al principio, cuando no conocía a nadie. De todas formas, podía hablar con mi familia y con mis amigos por Internet y por teléfono. ¡Las granjas ecológicas también tienen conexión a Internet!

(f) Entonces seguro que estás contento y has aprendido mucho, ¿no?

(m) Sí, muchísimo, ha sido uno de los mejores veranos de mi vida. No solo he aprendido a trabajar con animales, sino que también he mejorado mi inglés y he hecho amigos. ¡Ha sido una experiencia maravillosa!

(2 minutes)

(t) End of test.

Now look over your answers.

<td>The content is adequate and may be similar to that of an 8 or a 10. The topic is addressed adequately.</td>
<td>The language may be mostly accurate. However, in places, control of the language structure may deteriorate significantly. The verbs are generally correct, but basic. Tenses may be inconsistent, with present tenses being used at times instead of past tenses. There may be errors in spelling, e.g. reversal of vowel combinations adjective endings; and some prepositions may be inaccurate or omitted, e.g. I went the town. There are quite a few errors in other parts of speech — personal pronouns, gender of nouns, adjective endings, cases, singular/plural confusion — and in the use of accents. Overall, there is more correct than incorrect and there is the impression that the candidate can handle tenses.</td>
<td>There are some examples of detailed and complex language. The language is perhaps repetitive and uses a limited range of verbs and fixed phrases not appropriate to this level. The candidate relies on a limited range of vocabulary and structures. There is minimal use of adjectives, probably mainly after “is”. The candidate has a limited knowledge of plurals. The candidate copes with the present tense of most verbs. Where the candidate attempts constructions with modal verbs, these are not always successful. Sentences are mainly single clause and may be brief. There may be some misuse of dictionary.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>The content may be limited and may be presented as a single paragraph. The topic is addressed in a limited way.</td>
<td>The language used to address the more predictable aspects of the task may be accurate. However, major errors occur when the candidate attempts to address a less predictable aspect. A limited range of verbs is used. Ability to form tenses is inconsistent. In the use of the perfect tense the auxiliary verb is omitted on a number of occasions. There may be confusion between the singular and plural form of verbs. There are errors in many other parts of speech — gender of nouns, cases, singular/plural confusion — and in spelling and, where appropriate, word order. Several errors are serious, perhaps showing mother tongue interference. Overall there is more incorrect than correct.</td>
<td>There is limited use of detailed and complex language and the language is mainly simple and predictable. The language is repetitive, with undue reliance on fixed phrases and a limited range of common basic verbs such as to be, to have, to play, to watch. There is inconsistency in the use of various expressions, especially verbs. Sentences are basic and there may be one sentence that is not intelligible to a sympathetic native speaker. An English word may appear in the writing or a word may be omitted. There may be an example of serious dictionary misuse.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>The content may be basic or similar to that of a 4 or even a 6. The topic is thinly addressed.</td>
<td>The language is almost completely inaccurate throughout the writing and there is little control of language structure. Many of the verbs are incorrect or even omitted. There is little evidence of tense control. There are many errors in other parts of speech — personal pronouns, gender of nouns, cases, singular/plural confusion. Prepositions are not used correctly.</td>
<td>There is little use, if any, of detailed and complex language. The candidate has a very limited vocabulary. Verbs used more than once may be written differently on each occasion. The candidate cannot cope with more than one or two basic verbs. Sentences are very short and some sentences may not be understood by a sympathetic native speaker. Several English or “made-up” words may appear in the writing. There are examples of serious dictionary misuse.</td>
