You find this article about a French family’s way of going on holiday.

La famille Casse en vacances!
Nous avons un très grand jardin, que nous aimons tous. Avant, notre famille n’aimait pas partir en vacances parce qu’on avait toujours peur de laisser la maison vide et il n’y avait personne pour arroser le jardin ou les fleurs. Mais un jour, on a lu un article dans un magazine qu’il était possible de faire un échange de maison. On s’est tout de suite renseigné et nous avons trouvé que c’était assez simple de trouver des partenaires sur l’internet qui, eux aussi, cherchaient une maison pendant les vacances. Maintenant on part en vacances chaque année chez des gens, qui eux, viennent chez nous.
C’est idéal pour notre famille. On a tout le confort d’une maison et on est loin des touristes. On fait aussi la connaissance des autres familles qui vivent dans les alentours et donc nos deux enfants ne s’ennuient jamais.
De plus, ces vacances ne sont pas chères car il n’y a qu’un billet d’avion. Il y a aussi quelques euros de frais d’agences à payer, mais c’est tout. Le seul inconvénient est qu’on doit faire le ménage avant de partir!

You read an article about Internet shopping in France.

15 millions de Français achètent en ligne

La France est le pays européen où les utilisateurs d’Internet adoptent le plus vite le commerce électronique.

Entre janvier et mars 2013, 25 millions de personnes ont fait un achat en ligne. C’est 2,5 millions de personnes de plus qu’en 2012. Pourquoi est-ce que les Français aiment de plus en plus acheter sur Internet?

Alors, d’abord c’est vite fait. En plus, on peut commander toutes sortes de marchandises sans quitter la maison et à n’importe quelle heure de la journée. Les sites de vente de personne à personne, comme par exemple Ebay, connaissent aussi un grand succès. Sur ces sites la plupart des gens sont honnêtes. Mais certains prennent l’argent pour un “objet vendu” et puis n’envoient jamais le produit.

Pour éviter ce problème, le gouvernement et les sites ont signé une Charte de Confiance. Ce document fixe des règles pour les échanges entre personnes sur les sites et protège le consommateur. La Charte a connu beaucoup de succès, et a encouragé surtout les personnes plus âgées à avoir confiance quand elles font leurs achats.

Item number one
Pauline tells you about the gap year she took after leaving school.

You now have one minute to study the question.
Après le lycée et avant de commencer à faire de longues études à la fac, j’ai décidé de prendre une année sabbatique et de voyager en Europe. Au début mes parents étaient contre parce qu’ils croyaient que j’étais trop jeune et qu’il était trop dangereux pour une jeune fille de voyager seule. Heureusement, ma tante qui vivait au Portugal a dit que je pourrais loger chez elle pendant quelque temps. Mes parents ont donc accepté à condition que je les contacte tous les jours et que j’aide ma tante à faire les tâches ménagères. Malheureusement, je me suis mal entendue avec ma tante. Je devais rentrer à 21 heures tous les soirs et je n’avais pas le droit d’inviter mes copains à la maison. Par conséquent, j’ai décidé de louer un appartement avec mes nouveaux amis. Pour payer le logement j’ai trouvé un petit boulot à la plage où je vendais des glaces. J’ai fini par passer toute l’année au Portugal. D’accord, je n’ai peut-être pas fait le tour de l’Europe mais j’ai eu ma première expérience de la vie sans mes parents et j’ai gagné beaucoup de confiance en moi.

Item number two
You hear your French assistant being interviewed about his experiences after he left school.

You now have one minute to study the question.

Qu’est-ce que vous avez fait après avoir fini votre bac, Edouard?

D’abord, j’ai pris une année sabbatique parce que je voulais voyager un peu en Europe et puis après je suis allé étudier les langues à l’université.

Qu’est-ce que vous avez fait pour pouvoir payer ce voyage en Europe?

D’abord j’ai travaillé dans un office de tourisme tout près de chez moi. C’était un travail très varié. Par exemple, je devais trouver un logement pour les gens qui visitaient notre région ou bien faire des réservations pour les excursions.

Vous avez aimé ce travail?

Pour moi, il y avait beaucoup d’avantages dans ce job car j’avais l’occasion de parler d’autres langues avec les touristes, je touchais un bon salaire et je ne m’ennuyais jamais! J’avais toujours beaucoup à faire et les journées passaient très vite.

Vous n’avez pas eu des problèmes avec les clients?

Normalement les clients étaient de bonne humeur parce qu’ils étaient en vacances. Ils n’étaient pas stressés car ils ne pensaient pas à leurs problèmes.

C’était le seul travail que vous avez fait?

Non, j’ai travaillé aussi chez Club Jeunesses dans ma ville, c’est pour les jeunes âgés de douze à dix-sept ans. Le club est ouvert le week-end et tous les soirs sauf le lundi.

Qu’est-ce qu’on pouvait faire là?

Bien sûr, nous avons proposé des activités sportives. A part ça, on pouvait faire de la peinture ou jouer d’un instrument de musique. En plus, on avait l’occasion de bavarder avec les copains.

Ce Club, c’est populaire chez vous?

Oui, le club joue un rôle très important dans la ville car il offre aux jeunes la possibilité de se rencontrer en sécurité. En plus, les parents sont contents de nos services parce que les jeunes ne traînent pas dans les rues et il y a toujours des adultes pour surveiller leurs enfants.

Pourquoi est-ce que jeunes aiment ce Club?

A mon avis, les ados aiment bien venir au club parce qu’il y a une très bonne ambiance, et surtout parce qu’on organise des activités pour tout le monde.

Writing
Candidates will write a piece of extended writing in the modern language by addressing six bullet points. These bullet points will follow on from a job-related scenario. The bullet points will cover the four contexts of society, learning, employability and culture, to allow candidates to use and adapt learned material. The first four bullet points will be the same each year and the last two will change to suit the scenario. Candidates need to address these “unpredictable bullet points” in detail to access the full range of marks.

<td>The job advert has been addressed in a full and balanced way. The candidate uses detailed language. The candidate addresses the advert completely and competently, including information in response to both unpredictable bullet points. A range of verbs/verb forms, tenses and constructions is used. Overall this comes over as a competent, well-thought-out and serious application for the job.</td>
<td>The candidate handles all aspects of grammar and spelling accurately, although the language may contain one or two minor errors. Where the candidate attempts to use language more appropriate to Higher, a slightly higher number of inaccuracies need not detract from the overall very good impression.</td>
<td>The candidate is comfortable with the first person of the verb and generally uses a different verb in each sentence. Some modal verbs and infinitives may be used. There is good use of adjectives, adverbs and prepositional phrases and, where appropriate, word order. There may be a range of tenses. The candidate uses co-ordinating conjunctions and/or subordinate clauses where appropriate. The language of the e-mail flows well.</td>

<td>The job advert has been addressed competently. There is less evidence of detailed language. The candidate uses a reasonable range of verbs/verb forms. Overall, the candidate has produced a genuine, reasonably accurate attempt at applying for the specific job, even though he/she may not address one of the unpredictable bullet points.</td>
<td>The candidate handles a range of verbs fairly accurately. There are some errors in spelling, adjective endings and, where relevant, case endings. Use of accents is less secure, where appropriate. Where the candidate is attempting to use more complex vocabulary and structures, these may be less successful, although basic structures are used accurately. There may be one or two examples of inaccurate dictionary use, especially in the unpredictable bullet points.</td>
<td>There may be repetition of verbs. There may be examples of listing, in particular when referring to school/college experience, without further amplification. There may be one or two examples of a co-ordinating conjunction, but most sentences are simple sentences. The candidate keeps to more basic vocabulary, particularly in response to either or both unpredictable bullet points.</td>
