

Contents list:

Understanding History: Key Stage 3

Britain in the wider world, Roman times–present

1 Thematic study: Water and health through time

- 1A Iron Age Britain (700bc–ad43)
- 1B Roman Britain (ad43–ad410)
- 1C Medieval Britain (400–1450)
- 1D Early Modern Britain (1450–1750)
- 1E Industrial Britain (1750–1850)
- 1F Sanitation sorted (1850–1900)

2 Period study: Understanding the Middle Ages, 1000–1450

2.1 Big picture: The Middle Ages, 1000–1450

2.2 Enquiry: How did the Normans conquer England?

- 2.2A England in the 1060s
- 2.2B Taking the crown, 1066
- 2.2C Gaining control of England, 1067–71
- 2.2D Keeping control of England, 1071–87

2.3 Close-up: Picturing medieval monarchs

2.4 Enquiry: How can we explain the First Crusade?

- 2.4A Crusaders
- 2.4B The crusaders' journey to Jerusalem
- 2.4C The capture of Jerusalem

2.5 Close-up: A Muslim map of the world

2.6 Enquiry: What did King Edward I achieve?

- 2.6A Edward's big problems
- 2.6B Ruling England
- 2.6C Edward's wars

2.7 Site study: The Tower of London – how and why castles change over time

2.8 Enquiry: What mattered to medieval people?

- 2.8A The lords
- 2.8B Peasants
- 2.8C People in towns
- 2.8D Why medieval religion mattered so much to everyone

2.9 Site study: Fountains Abbey – the power and wealth of the monasteries

2.10 Enquiry: What should people understand about the Black Death?

- 2.10A The Black Death arrives
- 2.10B How people responded to the Black Death
- 2.10C What the Black Death changed

2.11 Close-up: Medieval dangers

2.12 Period review: How would you sum up the Medieval period, 1000–1450?

3 Thematic study: London through time

- 3A London through time
- 3B Roman London, ad43–ad400
- 3C Medieval London, ad 400–1450
- 3D Early Modern London, 1450–1750
- 3E London 1750–1900
- 3F London since 1900

Covers the whole of KS3 History in a single book!

4 Period study: Understanding the changing world, 1450–1750

4.1 Big picture: The Early Modern period

4.2 Enquiry: What changed, 1450–1550?

- 4.2A Leonardo da Vinci
- 4.2B Renaissance
- 4.2C Connecting the world
- 4.2D Reformation

4.3 Close-up: 'The Ambassadors', by Hans Holbein

4.4 Enquiry: What mattered to Henry VIII?

- 4.4A The early years, 1509–25
- 4.4B The middle years, 1526–34
- 4.4C The later years, 1535–47

4.5 Site study: Hampton Court Palace – the power of Tudor monarchs

4.6 Enquiry: How far was Elizabethan England a 'golden age'?

- 4.6A The defeat of the Spanish Armada, 1588
- 4.6B Wealth and poverty
- 4.6C Elizabethan adventurers
- 4.6D A 'golden age' of culture?

4.7 Close-up: The new theatres

4.8 Enquiry: How can we explain the Civil War?

- 4.8A Years of turmoil, 1625–60
- 4.8B The road to civil war, 1625–42
- 4.8C Fighting the Civil War

4.9 Site study: Dyrham Park – how the rich lived in the seventeenth century

4.10 Enquiry: Who was the greatest Mughal Emperor?

- 4.10A Babur and Humayun
- 4.10B Akbar and Jahangir
- 4.10C Shah Jahan and Aurangzeb

4.11 Close-up: The East India Company

4.12 Period review: How would you sum up the Early Modern period, 1450–1750?

5 Thematic study: Sugar, empire and slavery through time

- 5A How sugar reached the Islamic world, ad350–1100
- 5B How sugar spread to Europe and the Caribbean, 1100–1500
- 5C Transatlantic sugar, 1500–1800
- 5D The human cost of sugar
- 5E Sugar for everyone, 1800–1900
- 5F The sugar crisis: 1900 to the present

6 Period study: Understanding industry and empire, 1750–1900

6.1 Big picture: Industry and empire

6.2 Enquiry: What was the impact of the Industrial Revolution on people's lives?

- 6.2A What was the Industrial Revolution?
- 6.2B The working lives of men
- 6.2C The working lives of women
- 6.2D The working lives of children

6.3 Site study: Ancoats, Manchester – an industrial landscape

6.4 Enquiry: How should we remember Peterloo?

- 6.4A The background to Peterloo
- 6.4B 16 August, 1819
- 6.4C After Peterloo

6.5 Close-up: Map of the British Empire in 1886

6.6 Enquiry: How did the British colonise Australia?

- 6.6A Claiming Australia
- 6.6B Creating a convict colony
- 6.6C Aborigines
- 6.6D Settlers

6.7 Close-up: The Great Exhibition of 1851

6.8 Enquiry: What can paintings tell us about Victorian attitudes to family life?

- 6.8A A rural family
- 6.8B The ideal family
- 6.8C Families in difficulty

6.9 Site study: Birmingham Town Hall

6.10 Enquiry: What mattered to the British rulers of India, 1750–1900?

- 6.10A Company rule, 1757–1803
- 6.10B From rule to rebellion, 1803–59
- 6.10C The British Raj, 1858–1905

6.11 Close-up: The Koh-i-Noor diamond

6.12 Period review: How would you sum up the period 1750–1900?

7 Thematic study: Migration to Britain through time

- 7A Migration to Britain – an overview
- 7B Early Medieval migration, 400–1066
- 7C Late Medieval migration, 1066–1500
- 7D Early Modern migration, 1500–1750
- 7E Industrial and Imperial migration, 1750–1900
- 7F Modern migration, 1900 to the present

8 Period study: Understanding the modern world, 1900 to present

8.1 Big picture: The modern world

8.2 Enquiry: What was the impact of the First World War on people's lives?

- 8.2A 'Your country needs you!'
- 8.2B Living and fighting on the Western Front
- 8.2C The global conflict
- 8.2D Civilians' lives on the Home Front

8.3 Site study: Newfoundland Memorial Park

8.4 Enquiry: How should Winston Churchill be remembered?

- 8.4A Churchill's early career, 1900–18
- 8.4B Churchill's career, 1918–40
- 8.4C From war leader to retirement, 1940–65

8.5 Close-up: The Blitz spirit and war-time propaganda

8.6 Enquiry: What stories lie behind photographs of the Holocaust?

- 8.6A Increasing persecution, 1933–39
- 8.6B Ghettos 1939–43
- 8.6C Mass murder 1941–45

8.7 Site study: York Cold War observation bunker

8.8 Enquiry: What helped the struggle for equal rights in Britain after 1960?

- 8.8A 1960 to the present – an overview
- 8.8B Campaigns and campaigners
- 8.8C Factors and trends

8.9 Close-up: Statue of Millicent Fawcett in Parliament Square

8.10 Enquiry: What caused the 9/11 attacks?

8.10A Al-Qaeda

8.10B Muslim mistrust of the West, 1900–66

8.10C The formation and growth of al-Qaeda, 1967–96

8.10D Threats and attacks, 1997–2001

8.11 Close-up: The invention of the World Wide Web

8.12 Period review: How would you sum up the twentieth century?

Find out more and request an Inspection Copy at:
www.hoddereducation.co.uk/UnderstandingHistory